As a working actor/director/producer I have entertained the idea of teaching a workshop for years. It has finally come to fruition. If you would like to hone your acting skills, or rediscover them, please browse through the website.

The Actors Workshop is a place for intermediate to advanced actors. At this time we are not in a position to help those who are just starting out. You need some background in acting to fully take advantage of what we'll be covering. This is not to say that you have to be highly proficient, but you should feel comfortable as a performer and have a desire to further your skills.

I look forward to working with you. See you at the Workshop!
